3 Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (As Amended) – Licensing of Taxis and Private Hire Cars

A report dated 10 July 2019 by the Executive Director (Finance and Corporate Resources) was submitted requesting approval to commence a survey to:-

- ♦ assess whether or not there was an 'overprovision' of private hire cars in any of the zones of South Lanarkshire
- ♦ assess whether or not there was any significant unmet demand in respect of taxis in each of the zones of South Lanarkshire
- ♦ determine whether the current provision of wheelchair accessible vehicles in each zone of South Lanarkshire was sufficient

Section 10(3) of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 provided that a licensing authority could refuse the grant of a taxi licence for the purpose of limiting the number of taxis but only if it was satisfied that there was no significant unmet demand for the services of taxis in its area.

This provision did not apply to applications for private hire car licences. However, amendments made to the Act by the Air Weapons and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2015, which came into effect on 15 May 2017, introduced the principle of refusing applications for private hire cars on the basis of overprovision.

Sections 10(3A), (3B) and (3C) of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 allowed the licensing authority to refuse an application for a private hire car licence on the grounds that it was satisfied that there already existed, or would exist if the licence was granted, an overprovision of private hire cars in the locality or localities in which the private hire car was to operate.

There was currently no statutory guidance available, however, the Scottish Government was in the process of drafting appropriate guidance.

In considering whether there was, or would be, an overprovision of private hire cars in the locality, Section 10(3C) provided that the licensing authority must have regard to the number of private hire car licences operating and the demand for private hire car services in the locality. Currently, there was no evidence upon which the licensing authority could base a conclusion of unmet demand in any of its localities and it was proposed to carry out a survey to address this.

As an independent survey had not been carried out in respect of taxis for a number of years, it was proposed that the survey also include the use and demand of taxis in each zone to determine if there was “any significant unmet demand” in respect of taxis.

It was further proposed that the survey include whether the current provision of wheelchair accessible vehicles in each zone of South Lanarkshire was sufficient.

The outcome of the survey would be reported to a future meeting of this Committee.

The Committee decided:

that a survey be instructed to assess:-

- ♦ if there was any overprovision of private hire cars in each zone of South Lanarkshire
- ♦ if there was any significant unmet demand in respect of taxis in each zone of South Lanarkshire
- ♦ the sufficiency of Wheelchair Accessible Vehicles throughout the zones in South Lanarkshire

4 Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (As Amended) – Sexual Entertainment Venues

A report dated 1 August 2019 by the Executive Director (Finance and Corporate Resources) was submitted on the introduction of the licensing of sexual entertainment venues as a defined activity under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (as amended).

On 29 April 2019, the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 was amended by Section 76 of the Air Weapons and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2015. The licensing of sexual entertainment venues had been introduced as an optional activity which meant that it was a matter for the licensing authority to decide whether or not it wished to include such venues in the licensing regime. If the licensing authority decided to licence sexual entertainment venues, then it would require to pass a resolution in order for this activity to be licensed.

At present, as far as the Council was aware, there were no sexual entertainment venues within South Lanarkshire. However, this Committee, as licensing authority, should consider whether it would wish to control those activities, even if no such premises were currently in operation in the Council area. If the Committee decided not to licence the activity, then no licence would be required to operate a sexual entertainment venue within South Lanarkshire Council area in the future. This would mean that sexual entertainment venues would remain largely unregulated. If such a resolution was passed, any existing or new venues would require to be licensed.

The definition of a sexual entertainment venue and the type of entertainment was set out in the legislation.

Before considering whether or not to introduce a resolution, the licensing authority required to carry out a consultation exercise with a range of consultees, including members of the public, local businesses, Council Resources and Police Scotland.

If the licensing authority decided to introduce a licensing regime for sexual entertainment venues, it must then determine the appropriate number of sexual entertainment venues for its area or relevant locality which might be none. Once the resolution had been passed, the licensing authority could refuse the application on the grounds that, at the time the application was determined, the number of sexual entertainment venues in the local authority's area or relevant locality was equal to or exceeded the number that the licensing authority considered appropriate for its area or that locality.

After the consultation exercise had been completed, the licensing authority would need to agree to introduce licensing controls in respect of this activity, therefore, a fee would be charged for each application.

The Committee decided: that a consultation exercise be carried out prior to a decision being made as to whether or not sexual entertainment venues would be licensed.

5 Urgent Business

---

There were no items of urgent business.

---

6 Exclusion of Press and Public

---

The Committee decided: that, in terms of Section 50A(4) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, the press and public be excluded from the meeting for the following items of business on the grounds that it was likely that there would be disclosure of exempt information in terms of Paragraph 14 of Part I of Schedule 7A of the Act.

Councillor Lowe left the meeting after this item of business

- ♦ proposing that consideration be given to whether private hire car driver's licence No 608 should be suspended or revoked
