 - (b) what procedure or combination of procedures are to be followed in determining the review

3. Background

- 3.1. The Council operates a Scheme of Delegation that enables Council officers to determine a range of planning applications without the need for them to be referred to Area Committees or the Planning Committee for a decision.
- 3.2. In terms of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997, as amended by the Planning etc (Scotland) Act 2006, and the Town and Country Planning (Schemes of Delegation and Local Review Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2008, where an application for planning permission relates to a proposal that falls within the category of "local development" and has been or could have been determined under the Scheme of Delegation, the applicant is entitled to request that the determination be reviewed by the Planning Local Review Body.

4. Notice of Review – Statement of Reasons for Requiring the Review

- 4.1. In submitting their Notice of Review, the applicant has stated their reasons for requiring a review of the determination in respect of their application. (Refer Appendix 5)
- 4.2. The applicant is entitled to state a preference for procedure (or combination of procedures) to be followed and has indicated that their stated preference is as follows:-

<input type="checkbox"/>	Further written submissions	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Site inspection
<input type="checkbox"/>	Hearing session(s)	<input type="checkbox"/>	Assessment of review documents only, with no further procedure

- 4.3. However, members will be aware that it is for the Planning Local Review Body to determine how a case is reviewed.

5. Information Available to Allow Review of Application

- 5.1. Section 43B of the Planning etc (Scotland) Act 2006 restricts the ability of parties to introduce new material at the review stage. The focus of the review should, therefore, be on the material which was before the officer who dealt with the application under the Scheme of Delegation.

- ◆ Planning Application Form (Appendix 1)
